News in Brief
Association News:

The 2012 annual conference of the Event Service Professionals Association (formerly ACOM), Princeton Junction, N.J., will be Jan. 6-8 at the U.S. Grant in San Diego. The shift forward of the ESPA conference schedule was designed to complement the Professional Convention Management Association conference, to allow meeting planners to attend the ESPA conference's education sessions, and to facilitate a networking session between participants of both conferences.
